[41-43]

- W: We need pictures of our employees for our silver jubilee brochure. Can you arrange to get them by this evening?
M: I'll see what I can do. Most of our staff is busy with arrangements for tomorrow's anniversary function.
W: Maybe you could take the photographer to the cafeteria during lunch hour. He can get all the pictures he wants.
M: That's a very good idea, thanks. I was wondering how to organize it.

[44-46]

- W: I'd like to see some formal shoes, please. Something in black or tan would be fine.
M: Sure, we've just got in some new designs that are both comfortable and elegant. What about this black pair?
W: I like the design of those brown shoes more. Could I just try them on?
M: I'm sorry, but we don't have your size in that design. But if you order a pair, we could get them for you within a week.

[47-49]

- W: Is Amy back from the seminar in Spain? I want her to go through this report.
M: No, she's expected by Thursday at the earliest. Her assistant Kim might be able to help out though. Amy said she's knowledgeable.
W: Maybe I'll get her opinion on it since it's urgent.
M: I'll call and ask her to meet you immediately. Good luck with it.

[50-52]

- W: Do I need to put more stamps on this letter? It has to go to Los Angeles.
M: No, if it's sent by ordinary mail. Express mail is faster, but more expensive.
W: Well, I'd like it to go as soon as possible. How much more would express mail be?
M: That'll be $4.75, ma'am. I'll just get you the extra stamps, if you'd like.

[53-55]

- W: Could you check on the arrangements in the conference room for this evening's program? We may have more guests than expected.
M: Sure, and I'll arrange for extra chairs. Is there anything else you want me to do?
W: Please get Hari to ensure that all the sound equipment is working fine. Last week we had a problem with the microphones.
M: Yes, we need to be extra careful this time. But I'm sure Hari's at his job already.

[56-58]

- W: How was your vacation, Dave? I heard you went to Europe.
M: It was just great. Actually, I spent two weeks touring France with my family.
W: I've been to Paris, but that was on business last year. I'd love to go to the French countryside.
M: You should go sometime. I can tell you the best places to stay, visit and eat at.

[59-61]

- M: So you've re-installed the printer driver and rebooted the computer, but it's still not printing?
W: That's right, Andy. I don't know what I'm going to do. I have to print out this report for the 2 o'clock meeting, and it's already one. Everything's working except the printer.
M: It must have something to do with your computer because everyone else can print. Look, since you have the Internet access, why don't you e-mail the report to Mary and then print it from Mary's computer? While you're printing, I'll take a closer look at your computer and see if I can fix it.
W: That's a great idea.

[62-64]

M: Wendy, could you send a memo to all of our contract employees?

W: Absolutely. What's it about?

M: Management has decided on a new payment system. From now on, I'd like everyone to send us an invoice for their work based on the same format. I'll send you the invoice template to attach to the e-mail. This way, everyone's pay statements will look the same.

W: That's a great idea. I know there's been some confusion with that. I'll send a copy to the accounting department as well, just so they know that the memo's been sent.

[65-67]

W: Sarah told me you went to the new restaurant on Miller Street. How was it?

M: The food there is just great, and the service is excellent, too.

W: That sounds promising. Maybe I'll take our overseas clients there this week. How are the prices?

M: Very reasonable. Here's their phone number if you need to make a reservation.

[68-70]

W: John, there's a lady waiting for you in reception. She's been there for some time now.

M: She's Amy Grant, the accountant we hired last week. Could you take her over to Human Resources? They can start processing her. I'll be there in 15 minutes.

W: Sure, I'll do that. The staff will be thankful for the extra help. Will she start work right away?

M: Yes, but she'll assist Mary for 15 days first, in order to understand our systems and procedures. After that, she'll work independently.

We would like to remind passengers that this is a non-smoking facility. Please limit smoking to the designated areas located outside the terminal building. Under federal safety regulations, all bags are subject to search by security personnel. Please do not leave carry-on baggage unattended in the terminal building. If you see any unattended baggage, please report it to security or an airline service official immediately. The gate areas are for ticketed passengers only. Those awaiting arrivals may meet them at the shuttle train exit, located at the east end of the terminal, or at their flight's designated baggage claim area. See the arrival board for flight numbers and corresponding carousel designations.

[74-76]

We're proud to welcome you all to this Theatre Festival. As you know, it is dedicated to the memory of award winning playwright Immanuel Pareto. This week you will get to see some of Mr. Pareto's finest works brought alive on stage by the most talented theatre groups in the country. As students of theatre, you will also get an opportunity to interact with the cast and crew of each play at a special gathering after the day's performance. Please restrict yourself to one question, so that everyone in the audience gets a chance to speak. We request you to turn off your mobile phones during the question session. However, you are welcome to take pictures of your favorite theatre stars at the end of the session. And now, Ms. Manuela Pareto, who is herself an acclaimed actress, will share some memories of her famous playwright father with you.

[77-79]

This is going to be a brief meeting. You are all aware of the damage caused by last week's hurricane. Many buildings in this area have been seriously damaged. Our premises have also been declared unsafe. So, we will now have to move to the office on 21st Street. For many of you this will mean a rather long distance to travel every day. I know we will all miss being near the harbor. However, the city council has approved our restoration plans and work has already begun. If all goes well, we may be back here by the end of the year.

[80-82]

Mr. Schultz, congratulations! This is Terry Allen calling from Skyways Travel Agency. You've won a $250 certificate in the "Away from Home" Holidays Sweepstakes! [86-88]

The next two days will show a cold front moving toward the center of the country, bringing cool temperatures to Kentucky and Oklahoma. Texas will remain dry for the next week, while a new storm is already building up off the coast of Seattle. The city will be hit by a thunderstorm within the next 6 hours or so. Georgia and Louisiana are on hurricane alert. In the east, expect sun and high temperatures everywhere.

[89-91]

You've reached the main office of Synergy Telecommunications, the first word in communications. Our office is closed today due to the national holiday. Please call between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday if you need to speak to our customer service staff. Our online service provides information regarding bills, additional services and tariffs. Customers can also receive information on our web site for special offers. Thank you for calling and have a nice day.

[92-94]

Coming up at noon is our special report on polluted air spreading through the city. But first, local residents are protesting against the expansion of roads in Leigh National Park. Forestry officials think this will help bring more visitors, but concerned citizens say the construction and the increased traffic will prove harmful to the environment and affect animals badly. The citizens are currently taking part in a rally in front of the Forestry Department building.

[95-97]

It's Friday evening and time for the latest news on the traffic situation in your city. If you are traveling northbound, traffic is very heavy on Highway 18, especially near Langford Garden. Traffic is backed up in both directions due to an accident, so turn on to the S-8 or Highway 10 to avoid being delayed. In another area, a breakdown on Trafford Bridge has brought vehicles to a halt in the Bay area. Police are arranging to tow the broken-down truck and restore the normal flow of traffic. Please wait for directions from them if you are in this area.

[98-100]

The city council is seriously considering rebuilding the Latong Railway Station. It has approached our company, Branson and Javier, to submit an estimate for the work. As you know, our nation's very first passenger train steamed out of this station about 150 years ago, making it the oldest station in the country. It is used by over 50,000 commuters even today. However, it cannot meet the rising demands of rail travel. We have proposed that a new terminal be built and the present station be converted into a Railway Museum. This will ensure that commuters get the benefit of the latest technology and conveniences while preserving an important part of our city's history. Our firm has already submitted a proposal to the council and is waiting for it to be approved.
